

2008 Erik Axel Karlfeldt Memorial Open

Round 10

1. A 2003 album by Portastatic whose first track was “Oh Come Down” had a title which referred to the “summer” of one of these. A song which asks “Do you need someone to hide behind?” and which instructs someone to “ignore the shadows on the wall” refers to the “season” of one of these. In addition to that Yo La Tengo song, this animal gives its name to an indoor soccer team which plays in Amway Arena in Orlando, as well as a hockey team which plays at HP Pavilion on the West Coast. Madeleine Poe is played by Sarah Carter on a TV show of this name, in which the main character is a deputy district attorney played by James Woods. FTP, name this vicious aquatic animal which features in the novel Meg and the movie Jaws.

ANSWER: shark (accept The Summer of the Shark before the second sentence)

2. In its first episode, Jon Glaser played Mr. Story, though Flavor Flav’s guest appearance was sadly cut. Other guest stars include Dick Gregory as the Sun and David Cross in roles like T-Totaled Timbo and Junkyard Jessup. Memorable episodes include one about Liquid Imagination, while the second half of one episode is the first half played backwards. Regular segments include “Funny/Not Funny” featuring mangled corpses, awkward interviews by children in “Beat Kids,” and man-on-the-street interviews by a blue-tinted character. Clarence, anthropomorphic letters, and the main character Chauncey are puppets on, FTP, what surrealist MTV2 show which is presented as a parody of children’s shows.

ANSWER: Wonder Showzen

3. One song by this group notes that “We couldn’t all be cowboys / So some of us are clowns” and promises to wait for the title figure in “Baton Rouge.” Another of their songs begins “Well I guess you left me with some feathers in my hand” and claims “I dream of Michelangelo when I’m lying in my bed.” Yet another of their songs notes “I dreamt I saw you walking up a hillside in the snow,” and concludes with the repeated lines “I am feathered by the moonlight falling down on me / Change change change.” The first two songs, including “Angels of the Silences,” appeared on Recovering the Satellites, while “Raining in Baltimore” appeared with “A Murder of One” on their debut 1993 album. FTP, name this Adam Duritz-led group of August and Everything After.

ANSWER: Counting Crows

4. Guy Woodhouse experiences the “swingin’ world” of this company while acting in ads for it in the film Rosemary’s Baby. Water purifiers are sold under the OH-line, while it ended its archery division in 2002. It recently bought out minority shareholders in the Kimble family, and acquired a company that manufactures instruments with up to 97 keys when it took over Bosendorfer. Valentino Rossi has scored five victories in 2008 riding the YZR model of one of the products that forced this company to pay the California government for emission violations. Three interlocking tuning forks in the company's logo show the importance of, FTP, musical instruments for what company, a leading producer of pianos and motorcycles?

ANSWER: Yamaha Corporation

5. He's not Rob Schneider, but he wrote the children's book You Can Do It. A recent poll places him after only Hank Aaron among positively viewed sports figures. He is the only post-merger player to both intercept a pass and throw an interception in the same game, doing so while playing for the Steelers, a team he was defensive coordinator for in the late '80s. He was a defensive coordinator under Dennis Green before being hired for his first head coaching job, succeeding Sam Wyche. He succeeded Jim Mora in his current job, in which he became the first African-American to coach a Super Bowl winner. FTP, name this coach of the Indianapolis Colts.

ANSWER: Tony Dungy

6. In one of his works, Herr Herditz tries to blackmail his business rival Klotz after he learns that Klotz's son Julian likes to have sex with pigs, a story which is intercut with the story of a cannibal who lives near a volcano. In addition to Pigpen, he made a film in which a talking crow is eaten after telling two men the story of how some friars preached to the titular "hawks and sparrows." His late "Trilogy of Life" included an adaptation of The Canterbury Tales, while his last film centers on four men who kidnap and torture a group of 18 youths. FTP, name this Italian director who was murdered a few weeks after Salo appeared, who also directed The Gospel According to St. Matthew.

ANSWER: Pier Paolo Pasolini

7. In Bad Boys, Will Smith claims that his car isn't one of these places when Martin Lawrence eats in his Porsche. One of them hosts Christmas Eve dinner in The Santa Clause, while Mari spends a night reading in one in Haruki Murakami's After Dark. One was the site of a beating of Asian Syracuse students who were protesting not being served. In one restaurant in this chain founded by Harold Butler, a man using a laptop was beaten by noted anti-nerd vigilante and football player Ricky Manning Jr. Plagued by accusations of racism since being started in Lakewood, California, FTP, name this restaurant that serves a famous Grand Slam breakfast.

ANSWER: Denny's

8. This state has produced such death metal bands as Hate Eternal, Nocturnus, and Kult ov Azazel. Songs titled with the name of this state include one in which the Blue Rodeo remember it, while "a couple of young girls went sailing into" this state's "arms" according to Patty Griffin. Samuel Beam adopted the name Iron & Wine while in college in this state, while other bands from here include Yellowcard, Less than Jake, and a band with a song called "It Never Snows" here, New Found Glory. Rick Ross represents this state's Carol City, along with Trick Daddy and a rapper named for this state whose current hits include "Low" and "In The Ayer." FTP, identify this state, also home to Gloria Estefan and a sound machine.

ANSWER: Florida

9. In 1996 this man bounced back from a dismal year to win his first European title at the Slaley Hall Northumberland Challenge. Laser eye correction has hampered him this year, though returning to a putter named after his wife helped him to finish second at the World Golf Championships. He finished tied for second at the Masters in 2007 and finished a clear second in 2002, a year after he won his first major by defeating Mark Brooks in a playoff at Southern Hills. A two-stroke victory over Phil Mickelson at Shinnecock Hills gave him his second US Open in 2004. Recently in the news for questioning the severity of Tiger Woods's knee injury, FTP, identify this South African golfer whose avian nickname derives from his last name.

ANSWER: Retief Goosen (prompt on "The Goose")

10. It is one of the favorite hobbies of Godiva and Dylan Blue in a recent book by Liza Nelson whose title refers to "playing" this. A strip version of it was purposed by Metzger to Oedipa in The Crying of Lot 49, while Columbo's first appearance sees a murderer's key choice in this used as a clue. A Terrance McNally play named for it sees this game played to pass the time in the Vietnam War. Wikipedia identifies "direct" and "indirect" modes of game play and suggests a "confirmation requirement" by the guessers. Wikipedia also identifies its namesake as the lower-bound of famousness to be considered a valid answer. FTP, identify this guessing game popular on quizbowl road trips, named after the painter of The Birth of Venus.

ANSWER: Botticelli

11. She was kidnapped and almost sold into white slavery while posing as a stripper to help Senator Jennings. In another episode, she was given a tube of lipstick which caused her to fall in love with the first person she kissed, which led to the disruption of an engagement party. She has a sister named Lucy and a father whom she irritatingly refers to as "the General." In the sixth season of the show on which she appears, she began working for the Inquisitor and dated Oliver Queen, while the season ended with her being brought back to life through the tears of her cousin, Chloe Sullivan. FTP, name this character from Smallville, an annoying woman played by Erica Durance who is Superman's chief love interest in some Superman comics.

ANSWER: Lois Lane (accept either name)

12. The band Jellyfish covered it on Bellybutton and called it "the sexiest song ever written." The single cover shows a buxom topless woman stretching her arms with the song's name written on her chest. The original B-side was "Mamunia," though "Let Me Roll" replaced it. Its lyrics postulate that the "only lonely place is on the moon" while the wind from "a thousand mesas" whips the hair of the title figure as she goes for "a ride in the sky." Possibly written for a dog or horse, this song also provided the name for an Australian group best known for "Are You Gonna Be My Girl." FTP, identify this song discussing marriage and the reaction of the major who may be a lady suffragette, a hit for Paul McCartney and Wings.

ANSWER: "Jet"

13. He was the best-known manager of the all-girls Fort Wayne Daisies, for which his daughter Nanci was a batgirl. His original position was changed from catcher because of Mickey Cochrane, and late in his career he pitched nine games for the Phillies. Said to have “muscles in his hair,” he was a 3-time MVP including his Triple Crown-winning season as a first baseman in 1933. Barry Bonds broke this man’s record of consecutive 30 homer seasons while Alex Rodriguez broke his record of youngest player to hit 500 home runs. FTP, name this early power hitter for the Red Sox and Athletics known, because of his last name, as “Double X.”

ANSWER: Jimmie Foxx

14. A screenshot from this is used as an hsquizbowl avatar by Auburn High School’s Zahed Haseeb, while a reference to it is found in bathroom graffiti in the game Prey. Scenes include a baby falling down a seemingly infinite flight of stairs and an eyeless man walking into a street sign. Beethoven’s Ninth Symphony is used as title music, and it features dancing to a Swedish Christmas song. One character is beaten for his choice in hats, while blood splatters a man who proclaims himself “fat and sassy.” A segment for the Family Learning Channel sees cheering in response to the statement “my anus is bleeding” in, FTP, this collection of advertisements given the title designation, a short animated film by Don Hertzfeldt.

ANSWER: Rejected

15. A world where this is true is “a world of smoke” where the singer can’t wait, according to a song called this by Five for Fighting. In a song by the duo Story, when this titular event happens, Jesus and Elvis will get into a church picnic and the world will change. A 2003 album begins with a song of this name, which has lyrics like “are you such a dreamer to put the world to rights” and the repeated line “payin’ attention!” That song says the titular statement occurs when “January has April’s showers,” and opens Hail to the Thief. FTP, name that song by Radiohead whose title refers to an example of fuzzy math made famous by Orwell’s 1984, usually intended to symbolize blind loyalty.

ANSWER: 2 + 2 = 5 (accept equivalent phrasings as long as the numbers are the same)

16. In one of his works, a man named Kenyon is introduced to Georgia at the What Ailing Ya beer garden, but after he beats her Georgia’s neighbors boo him. Arlene Milagro survives disasters that kill other people before meeting Avis Watkins, who survived the massacre of her friend’s family, in another of his works. In addition to “Common Law” and “A Poor Guatemalan Dreams of a Downtown in Peru,” he wrote about a man who investigates Ike’s murder in the title story of his All Aunt Hagar’s Children. This author of Lost in the City is better known for his first novel, a 2003 work whose characters include Henry Townsend, a black man and slaveowner. FTP, name this author of The Known World.

ANSWER: Edward P. Jones

17. She played musician Adrienne Partiger in a 1997 film which was set in Sumatra. She has been seen as Carrie Johnson in a 2005 film which also featured Rory Culkin and Jamie Bell, The Chumscurber. Along with Will Smith, she narrated a documentary about AIDS, A Closer Walk. She recently portrayed a character who competed with Hollis Nye to hire a young woman named Ellen Parsons; that character was a lawyer who was working on a case involving Arthur Frobisher, a billionaire played by Ted Danson. FTP, name this actress who on The Shield played Captain Monica Rawling, and who starred as Patty Hewes in the recent FX series Damages.

ANSWER: Glenn Close

18. Alumni of this school include Olympian Dan Steele and baseball players Marty Pattin and Kevin Seitzer. Kyle Hill of this school was drafted by the Mavericks, while another alumnus succeeded Sam Bowie as a starting center for Portland. Improbably, it is tied with USC for the most alumni coaching NFL teams at three. Besides NBA player Kevin Duckworth and coaches Mike Shanahan, Brad Childress, and Sean Payton, this school produced a quarterback who famously botched a hold of an extra point in the 2007 playoffs and has been romantically linked to Jessica Simpson. FTP, identify this alma mater of Tony Romo, a college located in Charleston in the state this tournament is being held in.

ANSWER: Eastern Illinois University (prompt on “Panthers”)

19. One song of this name states “I’m afraid I can be devil man / And I’m scared to be divine / Don’t mess with me, my fuse is short.” A better song with this noun in the title asks if you can “see this opposition” that “comes rising up sometimes” and expresses the “hope that somehow you / Can save” the singer from this. The first song opens the album Up by Peter Gabriel, while the second was the title track of an album which includes “A Minor Place” and which was released in 1999 by Bonnie “Prince” Billy. A British group of this name had a hit with “I Believe in a Thing Called Love” from their album Permission to Land. FTP, give this word for a condition which is “on the edge of town” according to Bruce Springsteen, and which is the opposite of lightness.

ANSWER: darkness (accept “I See a Darkness” or The Darkness)

20. One film about this figure centered on a visit to a mining town, and featured John Larroquette as Mayor Harold Herman and Katherine Helmond as Crazy Cora. Frank Gorshin appeared as Uncle Morrie in an earlier film in which he went on a road trip, while Wikipedia notes the controversy which surrounded a scene in another film about him when Taylor Devereaux got drunk, locked Ryce in an attic, and was apparently going to date rape her. That film about him features his children, who include Dolly, Chubby, and Tchaikovsky. The original 1992 film about him centers on his joining the Newton family, and features Bonnie Hunt and Charles Grodin. FTP, name this rambunctious canine star of a series of hit films.

ANSWER: Beethoven

Bonuses:

1. It was released for iTunes with the bonus tracks “I Can Love” and “It’s Easy.” FTPE: [10] Name this 2008 album whose regular version ends with “The Angel and the One,” which has given rise to the single “Pork and Beans.”

ANSWER: Weezer or The Red Album

[10] On this song from The Red Album, Weezer notes that “Gordon Lightfoot sang a song about a boat that sank in the lake” and that “Quiet Riot got me started / With the bangin’ on my head.”

ANSWER: “Heart Songs”

[10] This lead singer of Weezer released an album of home recordings called Alone in 2007.

ANSWER: Rivers Cuomo

2. Its premise involved the Woodcocks moving in next door to Eddie and Joy Stark.

FTPE:

[10] Name this sitcom set in Philadelphia, in which Jeff Woodcock was played by Eddie Kaye Thomas.

ANSWER: 'Til Death

[10] 'Til Death is best known as the post-Everybody Loves Raymond vehicle for this actor, who plays the hilariously misogynistic Eddie.

ANSWER: Brad Garrett

[10] Garrett provided the voice of Grin to this '90s animated series based on a popular sports movie franchise. It also featured the evil Lord Dragaunus, voiced by Tim Curry.

ANSWER: Mighty Ducks: The Animated Series

3. It is currently held by the Saskatchewan Roughriders. FTPE:

[10] Name this trophy won by the Roughriders after defeating the Winnipeg Blue Bombers last November.

ANSWER: Grey Cup

[10] James Johnson was named Grey Cup Most Outstanding Player. He played at this Sun Belt college, whose other football alumni include Cleo Lemon.

ANSWER: Arkansas State Indians or Red Wolves (accept any underlined part)

[10] This man was the Blue Bombers quarterback. He preceded Jared Zabransky as starting quarterback at Boise State.

ANSWER: Ryan Dinwiddie

4. Andrew Sarris's review of this film claimed that there is “almost a Mizoguchian nobility” in the protagonist's coming into his destiny as a doctor. FTPE:

[10] Name this 1999 film directed by Lasse Hallstrom, whose middle section centers on a character played by Delroy Lindo who commits incest with his daughter.

ANSWER: The Cider House Rules

[10] This actor played Candy's boyfriend Wally in The Cider House Rules; his other film roles include John Lennon and Brian Fantana.

ANSWER: Paul Rudd

[10] The part of Rose Rose was played by this singer, whose latest album is New Amerykah Part One (4th World War).

ANSWER: Erykah Badu (or Erica Wright)

5. The title track was intended by its composer to be a tone poem depicting man's evolution and final destruction. FTPE:

[10] Name this 1956 album, in which such San Franciscan sound effects as trolley cars can be heard on “A Foggy Day.”

ANSWER: Pithecanthropus Erectus

[10] Pithecanthropus Erectus is an album by this jazz composer and bassist, who also produced The Black Saint and the Sinner Lady.

ANSWER: Charles Mingus

[10] The track “Goodbye Pork Pie Hat” on Mingus Ah Um is a tribute to this tenor saxophonist and one-time member of Count Basie’s band, who died in 1959.

ANSWER: Lester Young

6. Answer the following about apocalyptic environmentalist works, FTPE:

[10] This 2007 book by Alan Weisman imagines what would happen to the Earth if all of humanity were to disappear.

ANSWER: *The World Without Us

[10] People hide out from a new Ice Age at the New York Public Library in this 2004 film which starred Dennis Quaid as a climatologist.

ANSWER: *The Day After Tomorrow

[10] This German board game makes solving the problem of global warming fun, as players negotiate to stave off climate change. With three players, the parties represented are the U.S., Europe, and “Tiger Countries.”

ANSWER: Keep Cool

7. This season saw a defending Cy Young winner traded. FTPE:

[10] Name this hefty pitcher shipped from the Indians to the Brewers.

ANSWER: (Carsten Charles) CC Sabathia

[10] Twenty years ago, a defending Cy Young winner was traded when this AL winner was exchanged for Kevin Tapani and Rick Aguilera.

ANSWER: Frank Viola

[10] Frank Viola moved to the Mets from this team; he had been named World Series MVP when they won in 1987.

ANSWER: Minnesota Twins (accept either underlined part)

8. You may not know who Tim Kang is, but then he doesn’t know who you are either. Answer the following about his work, FTPE:

[10] As a guest star on this TV series whose seventh season premiered on Friday, Kang played a smug Asian con man whose murder is solved by the titular detective.

ANSWER: Monk

[10] In a 2008 ad, Kang appears as a smug Asian scientist who tests this company’s motor oil. Their worldwide headquarters are in The Hague.

ANSWER: Royal Dutch Shell

[10] Kang played En-Joo, a smug Asian guy who banters with Reese and Diaz and is ultimately blown up in this 2008 film.

ANSWER: Rambo

9. It centers on the mysterious “Holiday” killer, who bumps off members of the Falcone clan. FTPE:

[10] Name this graphic novel written by Jeph Loeb, in which a major character is attacked during Sal Maroni's trial.

ANSWER: Batman: The Long Halloween

[10] Batman: The Long Halloween suggests that this character's wife Gilda did some of the Holiday killings. It also shows how he was deformed after being sold out by his assistant Vernon.

ANSWER: Harvey Dent or Two-Face

[10] This character was hired by Falcone to tell him who the Holiday killer was, and was not killed on April Fool's Day. He used a Lazarus Pit to cure himself of cancer in Hush.

ANSWER: The Riddler (or Edward Nigma)

10. Their most recent album is 2007's Red Carpet Massacre. FTPE:

[10] Name this group whose other 21st century albums include Astronaut and Pop Trash.

ANSWER: Duran Duran

[10] This 1982 Duran Duran album spawned singles like "Hungry Like the Wolf" and a song of the same name about a woman "who dances on the sand."

ANSWER: Rio

[10] The excellent single "Election Day" comes from the 1985 album So Red the Rose, recorded by Duran Duran members under this name.

ANSWER: Arcadia

11. This series featured villains such as the evil dummy Slappy, a camera that could tell the future, and man-eating aliens disguised as Jack-O-Lanterns. FTPE:

[10] Name this book series written by R. L. Stine.

ANSWER: Goosebumps

[10] Another villain of Goosebumps was this substance which had such strange effects as causing any creature exposed to it to undergo massive growth.

ANSWER: Monster Blood

[10] Stine also wrote this horror series that was primarily aimed at teenagers. It takes place in the town of Shadyside.

ANSWER: Fear Street

12. Its second season centered on Meredith Phillips, while Jen Schefft was the focus of the third. FTPE:

[10] Name this series on ABC, whose first season ended in love for Ryan Sutter.

ANSWER: *The Bachelorette

[10] This loser to Amanda Marsh on a season of The Bachelor was the original "Bachelorette." She went on to marry Ryan and appear on the first season of Dancing with the Stars.

ANSWER: Trista Rehn (accept either; prompt on "Sutter")

[10] You might have also seen Trista on this reality game show, which was hosted by Joe Rogan.

ANSWER: Fear Factor

13. A recent study suggested that citruline, a chemical found in this fruit, might have effects on blood vessels similar to that of Viagra. FTPE:

[10] Name this fruit, whose varieties include the “moon and stars” and yellow.

ANSWER: watermelon

[10] Legends about vampire watermelons figure in this author’s novel Carpe Jugulum, which is part of his Discworld series.

ANSWER: Terry Pratchett

[10] In 2007 this state, somewhat confusingly, declared the watermelon to be its state vegetable. Its official state poem is “Howdy Folks,” which notes “I always called Claremore a big little town.”

ANSWER: Oklahoma

14. They claim to be anti-consumerist, but they’re really just Luddites and anti-Semites.

FTPE:

[10] Identify this magazine founded by Kalle Lasn, which is dedicated to “culture jamming.”

ANSWER: Adbusters

[10] One of Adbusters’ more successful projects was this movement to abstain from a certain activity on the day after Thanksgiving.

ANSWER: Buy Nothing Day

[10] Adbusters has compiled a list of neoconservatives, marking each one who was Jewish. At the top of the list was this man who writes for Commentary and was Rudy Giuliani’s foreign policy advisor.

ANSWER: Norman Podhoretz

15. July 20, 2008 is the 26th birthday of actor Percy Daggs III. Answer the following about his storied career, FTPE:

[10] Percy may be best known for playing Wallace Fennel, the title character’s best friend on this TV series which was cancelled after three seasons.

ANSWER: Veronica Mars

[10] Percy played Rob for two episodes of this David E. Kelley-created TV show, which was set at Winslow High School.

ANSWER: Boston Public

[10] Percy also memorably appeared on an episode of this CBS drama, which went off the air in 2002; it starred Kathleen Quinlan as an attorney.

ANSWER: Family Law

16. Name these multi-sport athletes, FTPE:

[10] Perhaps the most famous multi-sport athlete was this All-Star game MVP while a Royal who was also a Pro Bowler while a Raider.

ANSWER: Bo Jackson

[10] This baseball Hall of Fame inductee was the first player to be drafted in three sports, being picked up by the Vikings and Hawks besides a baseball team. He ended his career as an Indian in 1995.

ANSWER: Dave Winfield

[10] He is the only other player to be drafted in three sports. He ended up playing for the Browns and is now a broadcaster for the Broncos.

ANSWER: Dave Logan

17. It centers on a meteorologist named Harris Telemacher who falls in love with Sara McDowell, a character played by Victoria Tennant. FTPE:

[10] Name this 1991 film, which noted that “something funny” was happening in the title location.

ANSWER: L.A. Story

[10] This actor wrote L.A. Story and starred in it as Harris; his written works include the novella The Pleasure of My Company.

ANSWER: Steve Martin

[10] This actress played Harris’s girlfriend Trudi in the film. A one-time student at the University of Chicago, she may be better known for playing Elaine on the series Taxi.

ANSWER: Marilu Henner

18. According to Wikipedia, its tracks will include “Madagascar,” “Sorry,” and “There Was a Time.” FTPE:

[10] Name this album, which will be its group’s first since The Spaghetti Incident? when and if it is released.

ANSWER: Chinese Democracy

[10] Back-up vocals on “Sorry” have been laid down by this lead singer of Skid Row.

ANSWER: Sebastian Bach

[10] In March, the makers of this beverage promised a free can of it to everyone in America, with the exception of Slash and Buckethead, if Chinese Democracy is released in 2008.

ANSWER: Dr. Pepper

19. “Beer, the cause of and solution to all of life’s problems.” FTP, name these fictional beers from The Simpsons that aren’t Duff.

[10] This beer, which Homer drank in the Beer’N’Brawl where he met Lurleen Lumpkin, is one of Duff’s chief competitors.

ANSWER: Fudd Beer

[10] Homer once dreamed of this beer that consists of a certain candy added to beer. Incidentally it is delicious in real life.

ANSWER: Skittlebrau

[10] Homer had this beer shortly before seeing the “alien” Mr. Burns for the first time. It needs more dog.

ANSWER: Red Tick Beer

20. Last year was the first time that this bowl was played under its new name. FTPE:

[10] Name this bowl played in Atlanta on New Year’s Eve, which used to be known as the Peach Bowl.

ANSWER: Chick-fil-A Bowl

[10] This team won the most recent Peach Bowl over Clemson, behind the play of players such as Bowl Defensive MVP Pat Sims.

ANSWER: Auburn University (prompt on “Tigers”)

[10] This team, currently coached by Tom O’Brien, is tied with Clemson for the most Chick-fil-A bowl appearances.

ANSWER: North Carolina State University or NC State (prompt on “Wolfpack”)