

2008 Erik Axel Karlfeldt Memorial Open

Round 4

1. One episode of this show centered on a girl named Audrey whose parents were killed by Donovan Shepherd. In another episode, a witness to a murder named Leni is targeted by arms dealer Amir Fayed, but the central character finds her in the desert before she is killed. Its second episode, which featured the release from prison of Lee Jay Spalding, was written by David Greenwalt, while its first episode introduced reporter Beth Turner, who is played by Sophia Myles. Other characters include Josef Kostan, who is played by Jason Dohring, and Coraline Duvall, who turned private investigator Mick St. John into a vampire. FTP, name this show which premiered on CBS in 2007 and should not be confused with an '80s series about detectives which starred Bruce Willis.

ANSWER: Moonlight (do not accept "Moonlighting")

2. In the N64 fighter Clayfighter 63 1/3 this character is the only fighter who was not original to the Clayfighter series. The first game in which this character appears includes locations such as Planet Heck and Buttsville. In a TV show he was voiced by Dan Castelaneta, and his sidekick was Peter Puppy. He found the item that gave him his powers while trying to escape crows, and his mission is often to free Princess What's Her Name. His foes include Evil the Cat and Bob the Killer Goldfish, who is defeated by knocking his bowl over the first time he is met. FTP, name this talking annelid, the star of a cartoon series and a series of platformers.

ANSWER: Earthworm Jim (prompt on partial answer)

3. Both number one hits from this album were preceded as number one hits by Leo Sayer songs. A re-release of this album added four songs, including "Saturn." Seven of the tracks on this album are over six minutes long, including "Another Star." The artist's increased focus on social commentary can be seen in such tracks as "Black Man" and "Village Ghetto Land." Coolio and Weird Al have sampled sections from this album's "Pastime Paradise," which opens with "Love's In Need of Love Today," while the third side opens with a song about the artist's daughter, "Isn't She Lovely." FTP, name this double album that features "I Wish" and "Sir Duke," a work of Stevie Wonder.

ANSWER: Songs In the Key of Life

4. One chracter in this book, Peter Jackson, has abnormal blood pH. The main character of this book is introduced after hosting a party for Stanford professors. This book introduces a hypothesis that implies that single males would be the most effective at making dangerous decisions, "The Odd Man Hypothesis." One of the characters nearly takes a drug called Kalocin whose side effects include turning the brain into jelly or causing the entire body to swell. Another character, Professor Jeremy Stone, has to stop the Wildfire base from exploding. This book was recently adapted into an A&E miniseries starring Benjamin Bratt. FTP, name this Michael Crichton novel in which a team of scientists tries to defeat the titular alien disease.

ANSWER: The Andromeda Strain

5. Larry Foust was selected with this pick in the first ever NBA draft in 1950 by the Chicago Stags, while James Earl Ray was taken with this pick in the 1980 draft by Denver. In 2000, the Magic passed on both DerMarr Johnson and Chris Mihm, instead taking Mike Miller with this pick. One of the worst players ever taken at this position was Nikiloz Tskitishvili, who was selected by the Nuggets in 2002. The Bulls traded Olden Polynice in 1987 for this pick, which they used to acquire Scottie Pippen. The Celtics traded this pick in the 2007 draft for Ray Allen, and Allen himself was taken with this pick in the 1996 draft. FTP, name this draft position that more recently has been used on Kevin Love and Dwyane Wade.

ANSWER: the fifth pick of the NBA Draft

6. One character in this film receives phone calls from Mr. Walters, and at the end learns that Humphrey has been fired and that he has received a raise. At one point, a man in a vehicle which looks like the “General Lee” asks the main characters “Where is the beef?” and offers to drive them to their destination. Near the end, a character is mistaken for a tour guide, which leads to his receiving a job from Mr. Frommer, while a series of hijinks leads an Italian man to say “This is one crazy pope!” One character is anally raped at Club Vandersex on the orders of a dominatrix played by Lucy Lawless, while Matt Damon appears to sing “Scotty Doesn’t Know” about Fiona. FTP, name this film starring Scott Mechlowicz as a high school graduate who journeys to Berlin to hook up with his pen pal.

ANSWER: EuroTrip

7. Browns kick returner Joshua Cribbs is an alumnus of this less-than-storied football program. Two graduates from this school have coached teams to NCAA football championships: one played defensive back in the early ‘70s and coached an SEC school, while another was a linebacker in the ‘50s and coached an independent. Besides Nick Saban and Lou Holtz, its football alumni include Steelers players James Harrison and Jack Lambert. Its current graduate with the highest profile NFL career didn’t play football at the school; instead, he played on their 2002 Elite Eight basketball team. FTP, name the alma mater of Antonio Gates, a MAC school found in Ohio.

ANSWER: Kent State University (accept Kent or KSU)

8. One song about a place of this name describes the “torn-up ticket stubs” from a “hundred thousand mugs” which are now “washed away with dead dreams in the rain.” A man named Keith is said to “talk in alphanumerals” and to be hiding from “young Orwellians” in a song of this name by Thomas Dolby. Such songs as “Crashing by Design” and “Give Blood” appear on a 1985 album of this name which is subtitled “a novel” and which was made by Pete Townshend. Some of those songs refer to a stadium of this name which was built for the 1908 Olympics in London, while an American location of this name was built for the 1893 World’s Columbian Exposition. FTP, name this kind of place where a “devil” was said to be in an Erik Larson book.

ANSWER: White City

9. One man with this surname created the Rockstar energy drink. An author of this surname wrote about Stephen Heywood, who was diagnosed with ALS, in the book His Brother's Keeper, and won a Pulitzer for his book about the work of Peter and Rosemary Grant on the Galapagos Islands, The Beak of the Finch. In addition to Jonathan, this is the surname of Tim, a reporter who in 2007 won a National Book Award for Legacy of Ashes, his history of the CIA. The recent The Geography of Bliss was written by Eric, an NPR foreign correspondent with this surname. FTP, give this name shared by the creator of the TV series Mad Men and by a man who would notoriously perhaps require a sombrero to contain his enormous head.

ANSWER: Weiner (accept Russell Weiner, Jonathan Weiner, etc.)

10. According to his MySpace page, this group's guitarist is 103 years old, while its drummer was formerly in the group Oddball along with Trevor McNevan. The singles "Eddie" and "Poison Ivy" were quasi-hits from this group's first album, Wave of Popular Feeling, which appeared in the '90s when this group was known as Groundswell. In one single from this group, they lament "No matter how hard I try / You're never satisfied," while another begins "I can't escape this hell / So many times I've tried / But I'm still caged inside." That song, "Animal I Have Become," appeared on their album One-X. FTP, name this Canadian group responsible for such hits as "I Hate Everything About You" and "Just Like You," a group whose name suggests a special 72-hour period.

ANSWER: Three Days Grace

11. Dusty Springfield helped sing the theme song for this show in its fourth season. The second TV reunion movie of its cast saw the third child in this family working as a real estate agent attempting to sell the family home, while the first saw the family matriarch run for Congress. The seventh season saw the introduction of homeless youth Luke Brower, played by Leonardo DiCaprio. During the final season, the character of Carol left the show because the actress who played her suffered from anorexia. Because the actress playing Julie posed for Playboy, her character's wedding to Mike was cancelled, due to Kirk Cameron's fanaticism. FTP name this sitcom about the Seaver family.

ANSWER: Growing Pains

12. The second track on this album notes that "if we could build a ladder that tall to come up and see you, we would." The second single from this album features a strange pronunciation of the word "passport," and sees the singer deciding to "revoke" his membership in the "club of the international playboys and play-yas." Another song from this album describes a singer who hits it big with his song "Stack That Cheese," which is the "best thing out of H-Town in a while." In addition to "Paris, Tokyo" and "Hip Hop Saved My Life," it features Matthew Santos on the hit "Superstar." FTP, name this 2007 album, the follow-up to Food & Liquor by Lupe Fiasco.

ANSWER: (Lupe Fiasco's) The Cool

13. One of this director's final films features a famous long take in which the protagonist tries to carry a lighted candle across a pool. That film, which centers on a writer who travels to Italy to research the life of an 18th-century composer, was Nostalghia, while he went to Sweden to make his last film, which centers on a man named Alexander who sleeps with a witch in order to reverse a nuclear holocaust. In addition to The Sacrifice, he directed a seemingly plotless film centering on a character named Alexei, Mirror, as well as a 1966 film whose prologue features a balloon ride, though the rest of the film is set in the 15th century and features Anatoly Solonitsyn as the title artist. FTP, name this director of Andrei Rublev and Solaris.

ANSWER: Andrei Tarkovsky

14. This man had a successful minor league season in 1999, going 7-0 at AA Texas and AAA Vancouver before being called up later in the year. He has been traded once, having been exchanged for three players in 2004, the most successful of whom is Juan Cruz. This pitcher's Southern heritage can be seen both in his college choice of Auburn and his appearance on the cooking show Paula's Party. In 2000 he had 20 wins and helped lead his team to the ALDS, where they lost to the Yankees, while his most recent postseason appearance was in 2005, the last of 14 straight postseason appearances for his team. FTP name this starter for the Braves who was once a member of the Big Three for the Oakland Athletics.

ANSWER: Tim Hudson

15. A person with this first name is said to be the son of Coleman Slawski on Scrubs, and is a member of the air band Cool Cats. One song whose title refers to a man of this name includes the lyrics "I'll take myself to an East Coast city and walk about" and concludes "I can't see further than my own nose at the moment." A hip hop artist with this first name misplaced an unreleased album while having a threesome, after which The Big Withdraw was leaked to the Internet. This is also the first name of a limo driver who falls in love with Mary Swanson, played by Lauren Holly, and goes with his friend Harry to find her in Dumb and Dumber. FTP, give this name shared by a Michigan football coach whose surname is Carr and an architect whose other names are "Frank" and "Wright."

ANSWER: Lloyd

16. This band's third single was titled "Alexander Graham Bell," and this band shared their first album with The Pipkins. An early hit of theirs, "Block Buster," features a World War II-era siren, while another, "Wig Wam Bam," deals with Hiawatha's love life. Their song "Action" claims that the singer is "the main attraction." This Brian Connolly-fronted band had hits with the songs "Fox on the Run" and "Love is Like Oxygen," their last song to chart in the U.S. Their most famous song details a dream the singer had about a man whose "eyes are red as the sun" and featured the instruction "everyone attack." FTP, name this British glam rock band most notable for the song "Ballroom Blitz."

ANSWER: Sweet (or The Sweet)

17. Current hosts of shows on this network include Daphne Brogdon and Dave Holmes. This channel airs reruns of “Celebreality” shows Celebrity Fit Club and The Surreal Life, as well as encores of Jimmy Kimmel Live. It has original programming such as the Lisa Joyner-hosted Infanity, and it offers Idol Tonight, hosted by Kimberly Caldwell and Justin Guarini. Currently it unleashes the duo of Lisa Rinna and Joey Fatone for awards show coverage. It features shows such as Look-a-Like and TV Watercooler, and used to be known as the Prevue Channel. FTP, identify this channel that is named for a magazine and features listings of a certain kind of programming.

ANSWER: TV Guide Network

18. This man met his first boxing coach, Doc Broadus, after moving to California as part of Lyndon Johnson’s Job Corps program. His 1975 victory over Jose Roman in 50 seconds was the fastest victory ever in a heavyweight title bout, while his victory over Michael Moorer in 1994 at the age of 44 made him the oldest heavyweight champion ever. He won HBO’s first televised boxing match, a bout against Joe Frazier in Jamaica, but he lost the “Rumble in the Jungle” in Zaire to Muhammad Ali. FTP, name this former heavyweight boxer, also notable for advertising Meineke and his singly eponymous grill.

ANSWER: George Foreman

19. Fela Kuti and his band Afrika 70 released an album titled with this word, meant to refer to Nigerian soldiers. A song of this name was the first and most successful single from the album No Need to Argue, while its plural form is the first word of the 2006 album by a group fronted by Forrest Kline, Hellogoodbye. DJ Florian Sentfer, recording under a name referring to this kind of nation, released the sports anthem Kernkraft 400. A group by this name released the 1967 album Odessey and Oracle featuring “Time of the Season.” FTP, “Living Dead Girl” and “Dragula” are the best-known songs of an artist who performs under what last name, which refers to the brain-craving undead?

ANSWER: Zombie (accept zombies)

20. Joss Whedon described his time doing rewrites on the script for this film as “seven weeks of Hell.” Jack Black has a small role in this movie as a pilot, while another character, Gregor, creates a balloon-based vehicle to save the protagonist. The object that the villain seeks in this movie is a map tattooed on a young girl’s back; that villain, the Deacon, is played by Dennis Hopper. At the time of its 1995 production it was the most expensive film ever made and was nicknamed “Kevin’s Gate.” FTP, name this flop which stars Kevin Costner as a gilled man named the Mariner.

ANSWER: Waterworld

Bonuses:

1. Name these concept albums with a sci-fi twist, FTPE:

[10] This 1982 self-titled debut album features songs such as “I Ran (So Far Away)” and “Modern Love is Automatic.” It describes an alien invasion of Earth.

ANSWER: A Flock of Seagulls

[10] This 1983 Styx album that features “Mr. Roboto” is about a future where rock and roll is censored and robots are replacing mankind or something.

ANSWER: Kilroy Was Here

[10] This 1975 album tells a tale of George Clinton-created characters traveling to space and starting radio station WEFUNK. The title song has the subtitle “Star Child.”

ANSWER: Mothership Connection

2. Name these TV court shows, FTPE:

[10] This show, which features “Real cases. Real people,” first appeared in 1996; Petri Hawkins-Byrd serves as the bailiff on it.

ANSWER: Judge Judy

[10] This show is hosted by a former immigration attorney who had a show on Telemundo, La Corte de Familia, before she crossed over into English language justice.

ANSWER: Cristina’s Court

[10] This show is hosted by a native of Cuba who graduated from the University of Miami’s law school; its host was sued by Arnold Preston in a case about the Federal Arbitration Act which went to the actual Supreme Court in 2008.

ANSWER: Judge Alex

3. This NBA player won three MVP awards, including one after the 1983 season in which his 76ers went “Fo’, Fi’, Fo’” to win the title. FTPE:

[10] Name this NBA Hall of Famer renowned for his offensive rebounding skills.

ANSWER: Moses Malone

[10] Malone played his first NBA games with the Buffalo Braves, before he was traded to this team where he played alongside Mike Dunleavy, Sr. and Robert Reid.

ANSWER: Houston Rockets (accept either)

[10] Malone played in the ABA with the Utah Stars before he went to the NBA, bypassing an opportunity to play at this ACC school.

ANSWER: University of Maryland

4. Answer the following about The Simpsons Movie, FTPE:

[10] When he sees a naked Bart skateboarding through town, this character announces “I like men now!”

ANSWER: Ralph Wiggum (accept either)

[10] While in Alaska, Homer plays this video game at an arcade, at one point blowing away a dancing penguin.

ANSWER: Grand Theft Walrus

[10] He is the only character to be killed by a piece of the falling dome, and bids farewell to the townspeople in a variant on his usual greeting before expiring.

ANSWER: Dr. Nick Riviera (accept either)

5. Name these songs made popular by the Monkees, FTPE:

[10] Their debut album featured a version of this song, which notes that “we’ll have time for coffee-flavored kisses / And a bit of conversation” when someone arrives at the title place.

ANSWER: “Last Train to Clarksville”

[10] This song instructs one “sleepy Jean” to “cheer up,” and asks “what can it mean” to the title figure, who is also a “homecoming queen.”

ANSWER: “Daydream Believer”

[10] It has been asserted that Mike Nesmith’s finest song was this track from Head, which notes “It’s a very extraordinary scene / To those who don’t understand” and ends “and it looks we’ve made it once again.”

ANSWER: “Circle Sky”

6. In one version, this city was not shrunken, but rather created by a magician named Tolos. FTPE:

[10] Name this “bottle city,” which was kept in the Fortress of Solitude.

ANSWER: Kandor

[10] In the original comics, Kandor was shrunken by this enemy of Superman, a green-skinned creature whose real name was Vril Dox.

ANSWER: Brainiac

[10] Brainiac blackmails Superman by threatening Kandor in this graphic novel by Frank Miller, in which Batman leads an insurrection against Lex Luthor’s dictatorship.

ANSWER: *Batman: The Dark Knight Strikes Again

7. This professional sports league features teams such as the Washington Bayhawks and the Los Angeles Riptide. FTPE:

[10] Name this league, which centers on a sport made infamous by a certain team at Duke.

ANSWER: Major League Lacrosse

[10] The Lizards are a MLL team from this location. The university of this name won NIT titles in 1939 and 1941, when its basketball team was coached by Clair Bee.

ANSWER: Long Island

[10] The Lizards feature John Gagliardia, a player who played in college for this university whose Blue Jays recently lost the Division I lacrosse title to Syracuse.

ANSWER: Johns Hopkins University

8. One notable scene in this film takes place in a diner where Bobby struggles to get some toast. FTPE:

[10] Name this 1970 movie about a piano player who takes a job working in the oil industry.

ANSWER: Five Easy Pieces

[10] This actor starred as Bobby Dupea in Five Easy Pieces; the previous year, he had played George Hanson in Easy Rider.

ANSWER: Jack Nicholson

[10] This actress appeared nude in Five Easy Pieces in a sex scene with Nicholson. She would later play Archie's daughter on All in the Family and was mocked for being fat on South Park.

ANSWER: Sally Struthers

9. It centers on the murder of bartender Ike Marcus, after which suspicion is cast on Marcus' friend Eric Cash. FTPE:

[10] Name this 2008 novel set in Manhattan, a departure from the fictional setting of Dempsy which appeared in the author's previous novels.

ANSWER: Lush Life

[10] Lush Life is the latest novel by this author of Samaritan and Freedomland, who also has written the screenplays for such films as The Color of Money.

ANSWER: Richard Price

[10] Detective Rocco Klein and drug dealer Strike Dunham are the central characters of this other Price novel, which was made into a movie by Spike Lee.

ANSWER: Clockers

10. Many fine songs don't have words. Name these, FTPE:

[10] The Allman Brothers recorded this seven and a half minute instrumental in 1972, releasing it on the album Brothers and Sisters.

ANSWER: "Jessica"

[10] This Led Zeppelin track is notable for its long John Bonham drum solo. It has been described as the percussion equivalent of the chapter on the whiteness of the title animal in the novel for which it is named.

ANSWER: "Moby Dick"

[10] The Police titled a 1979 album which opened with "Message in a Bottle" after this instrumental, which won a Grammy for Best Instrumental Rock Performance in 1981.

ANSWER: "Reggatta de Blanc"

11. This violation is explained in rule 8.01 of the Major League Baseball rulebook, and examples can include an interruption of pitching motion. FTPE:

[10] Name this violation that a pitcher can commit, which results in base runners being allowed to advance one base.

ANSWER: a balk

[10] This pitcher, who amassed 4,196 strikeouts in his long career, has the all-time record for balks with 90.

ANSWER: Steve Carlton

[10] This pitcher was notably blown by the wind, resulting in a balk that would help lead to the AL scoring the tying run in the 1961 All-Star game.

ANSWER: Stu Miller

12. The main character of this show, Shawn Spencer, revealed his special abilities to the police after being accused of a crime. FTPE:

[10] Name this USA show about a fake detective.

ANSWER: Psych

[10] Shawn's best friend, Burton "Gus" Guster, is played by this man who was Charlie

Young on The West Wing.

ANSWER: Dule Hill

[10] Gus's father was portrayed in one episode by this actor. He is best known for playing the black Ghostbuster, Winston.

ANSWER: Ernie Hudson

13. It's the contemporary equivalent of the Twist, but with unnecessarily baggy jeans and done by an obese man. FTPE:

[10] The rapper of this song claims his associates "don't dance," but rather just "pull up their pants" and do the titular simple move.

ANSWER: "Lean Back" (grudgingly accept "The Roc-Away")

[10] "Lean Back" was produced by the Terror Squad, a collective whose lead vocalist is this corpulent MC of such albums as The Elephant in the Room, who should not be confused with the even more corpulent, and dead, Big Pun.

ANSWER: Fat Joe (prompt on partial answer; accept Joseph Cartagena)

[10] In "Lean Back," Fat Joe says he refuses to rap about this location, a famous street basketball court in Harlem.

ANSWER: Rucker Park

14. The title track is followed by a version of "Body and Soul," while it also features "Bolivar Blues" and "Bye-Ya." FTPE:

[10] Name this album released in 1963, its artist's first album for Columbia, which features tenor saxophonist Charlie Rouse and drummer Frankie Dunlop.

ANSWER: Monk's Dream

[10] "Hackensack" and "Crescupule with Nellie" appear on this next Thelonious Monk album released by Columbia, whose name is more or less shared by a '90s musical act best known for the single "Jump."

ANSWER: Criss-Cross or Kris Kross

[10] "Locomotive" and "Japanese Folk Song" appear on this 1966 Monk album, whose title was also used for Clint Eastwood's documentary film about Monk.

ANSWER: Straight, No Chaser

15. Name these actors who appeared on The Wire from their other work, FTPE:

[10] This actress played Beadie Russell on the second season, and put up with a lot of shit from McNulty in season 5; she was recently nominated for an Oscar for her work in Gone Baby Gone.

ANSWER: Amy Ryan

[10] He played McNulty's partner, the Bunk. He also figured in the documentary When the Levees Broke, and played a detective in a 2006 film about a fatal video game, Stay Alive.

ANSWER: Wendell Pierce

[10] This British actor, who played Stringer, is also a hip hop artist under the name "DJ Big Driis." He starred as Monty in Tyler Perry's Daddy's Little Girls.

ANSWER: Idris Elba

16. This publication has featured stories about the impregnation of the Loch Ness Monster and Bigfoot keeping a lumberjack as a love slave. FTPE:

[10] Name this tabloid that often covers Bat Boy.

ANSWER: Weekly World News

[10] This Weekly World News columnist writes the “My America” column which he opens by declaring how mad he is about something.

ANSWER: Ed Anger

[10] Another recurring story for the tabloid involved the affair that this recent presidential candidate had with a space alien.

ANSWER: Hillary Rodham Clinton

17. In an effort to bring some much-needed class to this tournament, answer the following about classical music in films, FTPE:

[10] The opening of 2001: A Space Odyssey features this Strauss piece playing while monkeys beat each other.

ANSWER: Also Sprach Zarathustra or Thus Spake Zarathustra

[10] Also Sprach Zarathustra also appears in this 2004 film, which starred Eddie Murphy and Jeff Garlin. Other classical works used in the film include Eine Kleine Nachtmusick.

ANSWER: Daddy Day Care

[10] The title of this Ingmar Bergmann film refers to a work in F by Handel which plays over the credits; later in this film, Eva and Charlotte both play a Chopin prelude.

ANSWER: Autumn Sonata or Höstsonaten

18. If you love America, you’ll love these singers. Name these singers with jingoistic tendencies, FTPE:

[10] He warns America’s enemies that “we’ll shove a boot up your ass, it’s the American way” in his song “Courtesy of the Red, White and Blue (The Angry American).”

ANSWER: Toby Keith

[10] In “Iraq and Roll” he discusses America’s “High Tech G.I. Joe.” He also released the album Killin’ Time.

ANSWER: Clint Black

[10] He has released numerous pro-America songs such as “Ahab the Arab,” “The Swinging Sheik” and “Osama Your Mama.”

ANSWER: Ray Stevens

19. This game was released for the PlayStation 3 in 2008, and is subtitled “Guns of the Patriots.” FTPE:

[10] Name this recent offering featuring Solid Snake, which introduces “Octocamo.”

ANSWER: Metal Gear Solid 4 or MGS4

[10] Crying Wolf is fought in this location. It is also the primary setting of Metal Gear Solid and a stage in Super Smash Brothers Brawl.

ANSWER: Shadow Moses Island

[10] These act as currency in Metal Gear Solid 4. They are used with their namesake arms dealer.

ANSWER: Drebin Points

20. The 1973-74 NFL season saw the Miami Dolphins successfully defend the title they had won in their undefeated season. FTPE:

[10] The Dolphins defeated this team, which was led by Fran Tarkenton and Carl Eller, in Super Bowl VIII.

ANSWER: Minnesota Vikings (accept either)

[10] This running back from West Texas A&M started along with Larry Csonka for the Dolphins in that Super Bowl; he and Csonka were the first teammates in NFL history to both rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

ANSWER: Mercury Morris

[10] This current college football commentator quarterbacked the Dolphins to their Super Bowl VIII win.

ANSWER: Bob Griese